ABOUT THE CITY

Prayagraj, a holy city, currently known across the world for Mahakumbh, is a holy land of Sangam of Ganga, Yamuna & Saraswati Rivers. The city has been the central field of academics, politics and spirituality. It has special relevance to visit in the months of January and February due to the Hindu month of Magh. The City house the Allahabad High Court and is known as the judicial capital of the state. Prayagraj finds its reference in the ancient Vedas as the holy city of Prayag. Infact, the land of this city has produced seven of fifteen Prime Ministers of India and thus is, also known as the Prime Minister Capital of India. Some places of attraction in the city are Chandra Shekhar Azad Park, Anand Bhawan, Khusroo Bagh and Allahabad National Museum.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Chaudhary Mahadeo Prasad Degree College is one of the largest Constituent Colleges of the University of Allahabad. The College was founded in 1950 by a great visionary, philanthropist and patriot, Chaudhary Mahadeo Prasad, with the aim to impart education in diverse disciplines to all sections of society. It has since evolved into a premier co-educational institution, catering to the needs of more than 15,000 students from Prayagraj and adjoining regions. The College offers Graduate, Postgraduate, Diploma and PhD Degrees in Arts, Science, Commerce and Law. C.M.P. Degree College has recently received 'B++' grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC). It is the only constituent college of University of Allahabad which has been certified with ISO 9001:2015, ISO 50001:2018 and ISO 14001:2015 for Quality Management, Energy Management, and Environment Management, respectively.

ABOUT THE MOOT COURT COMPETITION

Moot Court competitions are simulated court proceedings where Law students practice their advocacy and legal argumentation skills. These competitions encourage teams of students to argue fictitious legal case, by presenting their legal arguments in front of a bench comprising experts in the relevant field of Law. The students carefully study the facts, legal issues and relevant statutes presented in the moot court problem to identify their key arguments for their sides. These competitions help in the overall development of a Law student as it inculcates discipline among the students and enhance their speaking and legal research skills. C.M.P. Degree College, Prayagraj offers students from across the country the opportunity to participate in this prestigious Chaudhary Mahadeo Prasad National Moot Court Competition, 2025 and develop an array of drafting, analytical, argumentative and interpretation skills.
