

Information Literacy Workshop on Manupatra Legal Database

The Central Library of CMP Degree College in collaboration with the Research Cell and the Law Faculty organized an information literacy lecture on the Manupatra legal database on September 22, 2025 in the college's new auditorium. The objective of this program was to familiarize law students with emerging areas of legal studies beyond the traditional curriculum, equip them with practical legal knowledge, and prepare them for various career opportunities in the legal field. The chief guest, Mr. Prabahakar Jaiswal, Sales Manager of Manupatra, highlighted the features and practical applications of the Manupatra platform. He explained in detail the entire process of accessing and using its tools, including Supreme Court and High Court case laws, bills, ordinances, drafts, and other legal frameworks, through the website. College Librarian, Dr. Punit Kumar Singh, also briefed the students about the library resources and facilities. This academic initiative reflects the vision of the Principal of CMP Degree College, Prof. Ajay Prakash Khare, and was organized under the guidance of Prof. Archana Khare, Convenor of the Library Committee, Prof. Babita Agrawal, Convenor of the Research Cell, and Prof. S. S. Singh, Convenor of the Law Faculty. Dr. Punit Kumar Singh, College Librarian and Ms. Renu Singh, Coordinator of the B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) program, were the program organizers. Prof. Babita Agrawal, Convenor of the Research Cell, welcomed all the guests while Ms. Renu Singh delivered the vote of thanks. The event was hosted by Ms. Anushree Pandey. Faculty members, research scholars, and students of the Law Department attended the program.
